MACMILLAN CANCER SUPPORT

During Form Time today we invited our students to fill a mug with loose change to support Macmillan.

We have been unable to hold our usual Macmillan Coffee Morning this year so instead, a team of staff and students, including Mr Ludlow ran 5km around our famous 'Denise Lewis' running track in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support at lunchtime. They were supported by local MP Stuart Anderson.

The team trained for minutes in preparation for it and would be very grateful if you are able to sponsor them through the Go Fund Me page.

From the Chaplain....

I wonder what are the things that sap your energy and make you feel tired and frustrated? I wonder when the last time is that you questioned the wisdom of a decision, or that you even questioned why God would allow certain suffering or misfortune to take place? Our reading this week from Isaiah 40 starts by reminding us how far beyond our own understanding are God's wisdom and power:

Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, or with the breadth of his hand marked off the heavens? Who has held the dust of the earth in a basket, or weighed the mountains on the scales and the hills in a balance? Do you not know? Have you not heard? He sits enthroned above the circle of the earth, and its people are like grasshoppers.

I love the image of mankind looking like tiny insects from the heavenly throne. But there is more. Though we may not understand God's reasons or see the full scope of his plans, we are called to trust him. If we can trust that God is at work in our lives, we start to notice and be glad of the little joys in life that he blesses us with. And as we notice more, we trust more and we are glad more. Our reading ends with the beautiful and uplifting words:

But those who hope in the LORD will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

May your day and your weekend be filled with blessings!

Next Week's Theme for Worship

Psalms 139 1-18

God created us and knows every detail of us, better than we even know ourselves!

At The King's CE School we believe that everyone is unique and created in God's image. We enable all to achieve their God-given potential; to grow, learn and aspire; to transform their lives and the lives of others and to journey in faith without limits within a unified, respectful and harmonious community.
